TALLEST MAN IN ALL CALIFORNIA IS WITH SHRINERS

L. A. Larson, Who Stands Seven Feet High Will Be a Feature in the Party Due Here May Second.

The tallest man in America is Drum Major L. A. Larson of the California Shriners, who will seize Albuquerque on May 22, with a welcome to California fair year, on their way through 57 cities to Atlanta, Georgia.

He is the tallest man in the state of tallest men, and the Californians are laying many a wager that he is the tallest man in Shriners.

Larson stands over seven feet, well proportioned and a soldier who has seen active service with American and foreign forces.

He is a fine horseman and can kick up the average man and swing him around on a horse's back with the horse going full speed. Once he did so in war action, and a star reminds you of it.

Larson is noted up and down the state of California for his rich baritone voice in music circles.

He will appear on the program given here, as well as in the parades
